Comments

In Alaska, the RLIS grant is administered by US ED to SQAs/LEAs; however, the Alaska SEA provided technical assistance to support our SQAs/LEAs in applying for RLIS funds. When provided information from US ED we have passed it to LEAs via our weekly ESEA newsletter, as well as through group and individual emails. We have also contacted individual LEAs via email and phone to encourage them to apply for the RLIS Award and to warn them regarding lapsing funds.

2.8.4 RLIS Subgrant Award Determination

Please report the method the SEA used to award grants to eligible LEAs. If the SEA used a competitive process, please describe that process and include a description of the methods and criteria the SEA used to review applications, award funds to LEAs, and how the LEAs were notified of the process. If the SEA used a formula besides one based on the number of students in average daily attendance served by eligible LEAs in the State, please describe that formula, including an explanation of how this alternative formula enables the SEA to allot grant funds in a manner that serves equal or greater concentrations of children from families with incomes below the poverty line, relative to the concentration that would be served if the SEA used a formula based on the number of students in average daily attendance served by eligible LEAs in the serves of students in average daily attendance served if the SEA used a formula below the poverty line, relative to the concentration that would be served if the SEA used a formula based on the number of students in average daily attendance served by eligible LEAs in the serves of students in average daily attendance served by eligible LEAs in the State.

In Alaska, the RLIS grant is administered by US ED to SQAs/LEAs, so US ED awarded funds directly to LEAs. In the past, US ED has shared this information with us and so were able to pass it on in this report, but this year US ED did not share this information with us. You will need to ask US ED staff, specifically eric.schulz@ed.gov and leslie.poynter@ed.gov for this information instead.
